

The Bowling Green State University (BGSU) Master of Education in Reading is for educators aspiring to improve their knowledge, skills and dispositions relative to literacy development across the grades (Prekindergarten through Grade 12). The program prepares students for successful employment as a reading specialist and/or literacy coach. The specific goal of the program is to prepare teachers to provide specialized reading and writing instruction, to assess and diagnose literacy behavior and to serve as resource persons in P-12 settings.

Students can complete the courses for the Ohio Reading Endorsement as part of the Master of Education program or separately.

ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS:

Applicants are required to submit scanned copies of official or unofficial transcripts from all institutions attended. Upon admission, final official or notarized copies of transcripts from all institutions where degrees were earned and diplomas from international institutions must be submitted. Also, applicants are asked to provide a statement of purpose. One of the following test scores is required for those applying for the Master of Education program that have not already earned a master's degree: Praxis scores, OAE scores or GRE scores (within the last five years).
